The new album
Produced by JOE HENRY

PRESS RELEASE: HEATH CULLEN ANNOUNCES FIRST NEW ALBUM IN FIVE YEARS, PRODUCED BY THREE-TIME GRAMMY WINNER JOE HENRY.

Heath Cullen returns with his first new album in five years, Springtime in the Heart, out on April 17, 2020. The album was recorded in Los Angeles with three time Grammy winning producer Joe Henry and is the long awaited follow up to Cullen's 2015 collaboration with Elvis Costello's Imposters, the critically acclaimed Outsiders.

The release also marks Joe Henry's triumphant return to the producer's chair following a tumultuous year in which he received a stage four cancer diagnosis (now, thankfully, in remission), and features an A-team of Henry alumni: Jay Bellerose on drums; Jennifer Condos on electric bass, Adam Levy on guitars; Patrick Warren on keys; and Levon Henry on reeds. The album was recorded and mixed by Pete Min and mastered by Kimberly Rosen.

Says Cullen: "When I stepped back and lined these songs up, side by side on the shelf, I noticed a thread of optimism, a thread of hope. That's why the record is called Springtime in the Heart, because that's what I feel like we all need right now. An antidote to bad news"
